We Have Just Begun .

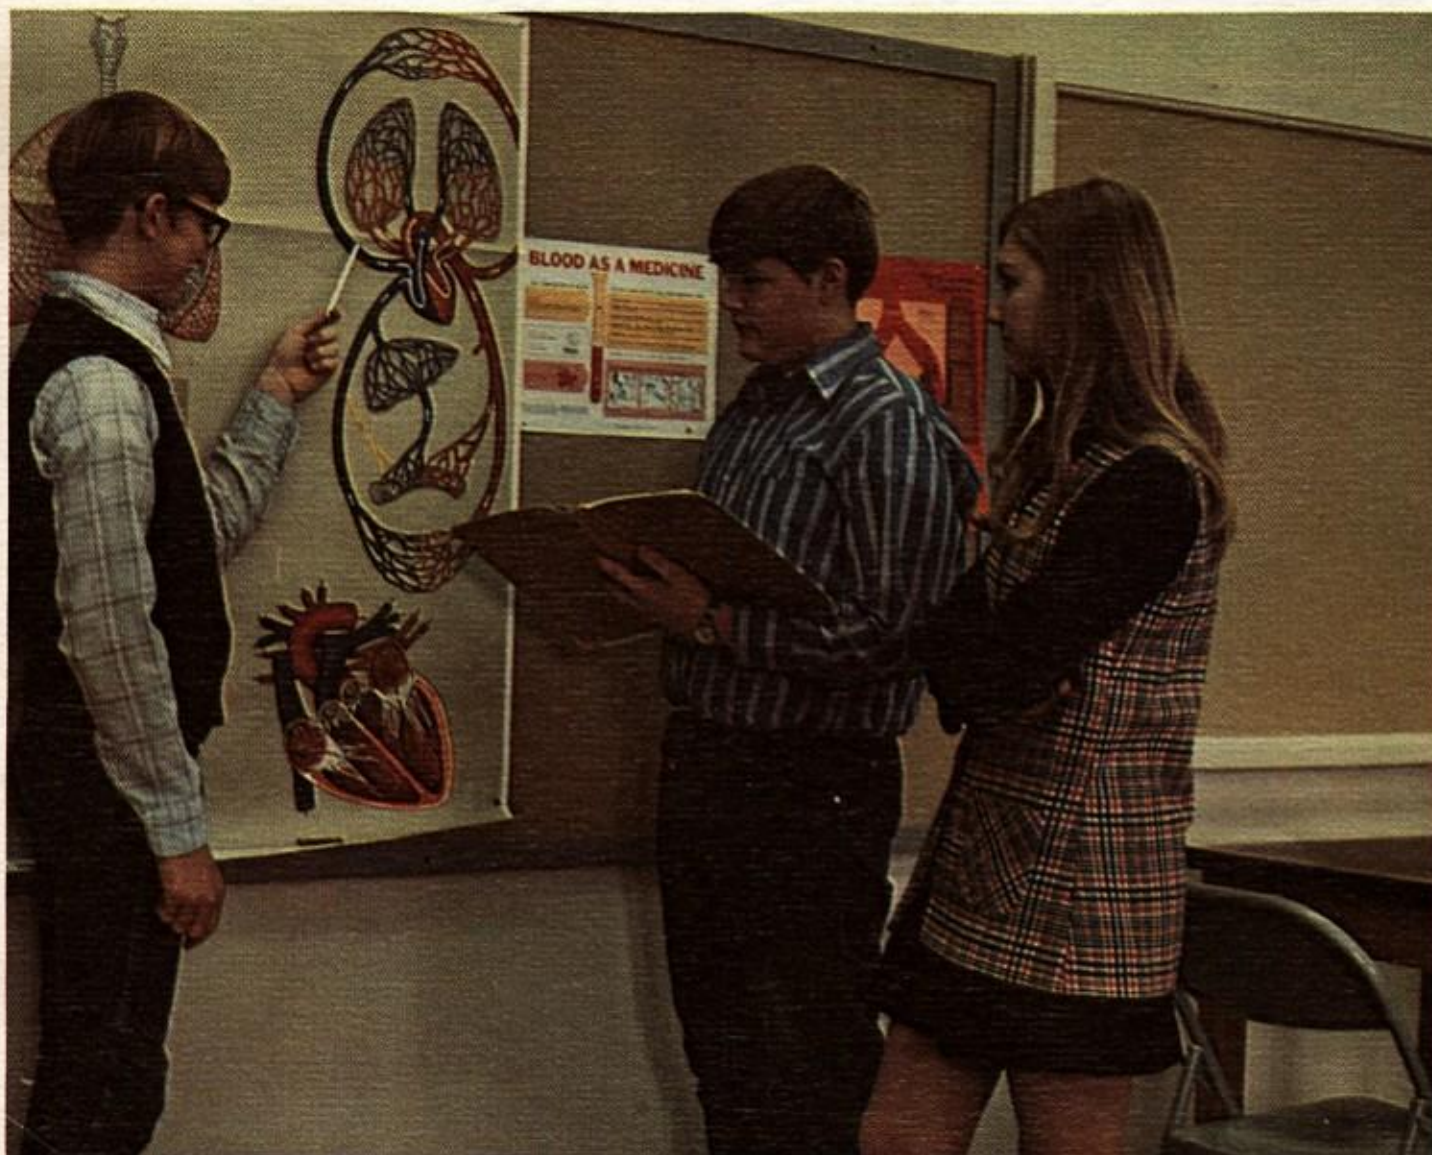

... To Live

We expect to know what we want from life-
And we all try to achieve our goals
We all have something to talk about-
Either ideas to express
Or opinions to suggest.
The talk of the war
In Viet Nam...
And the problem
Of pollution...

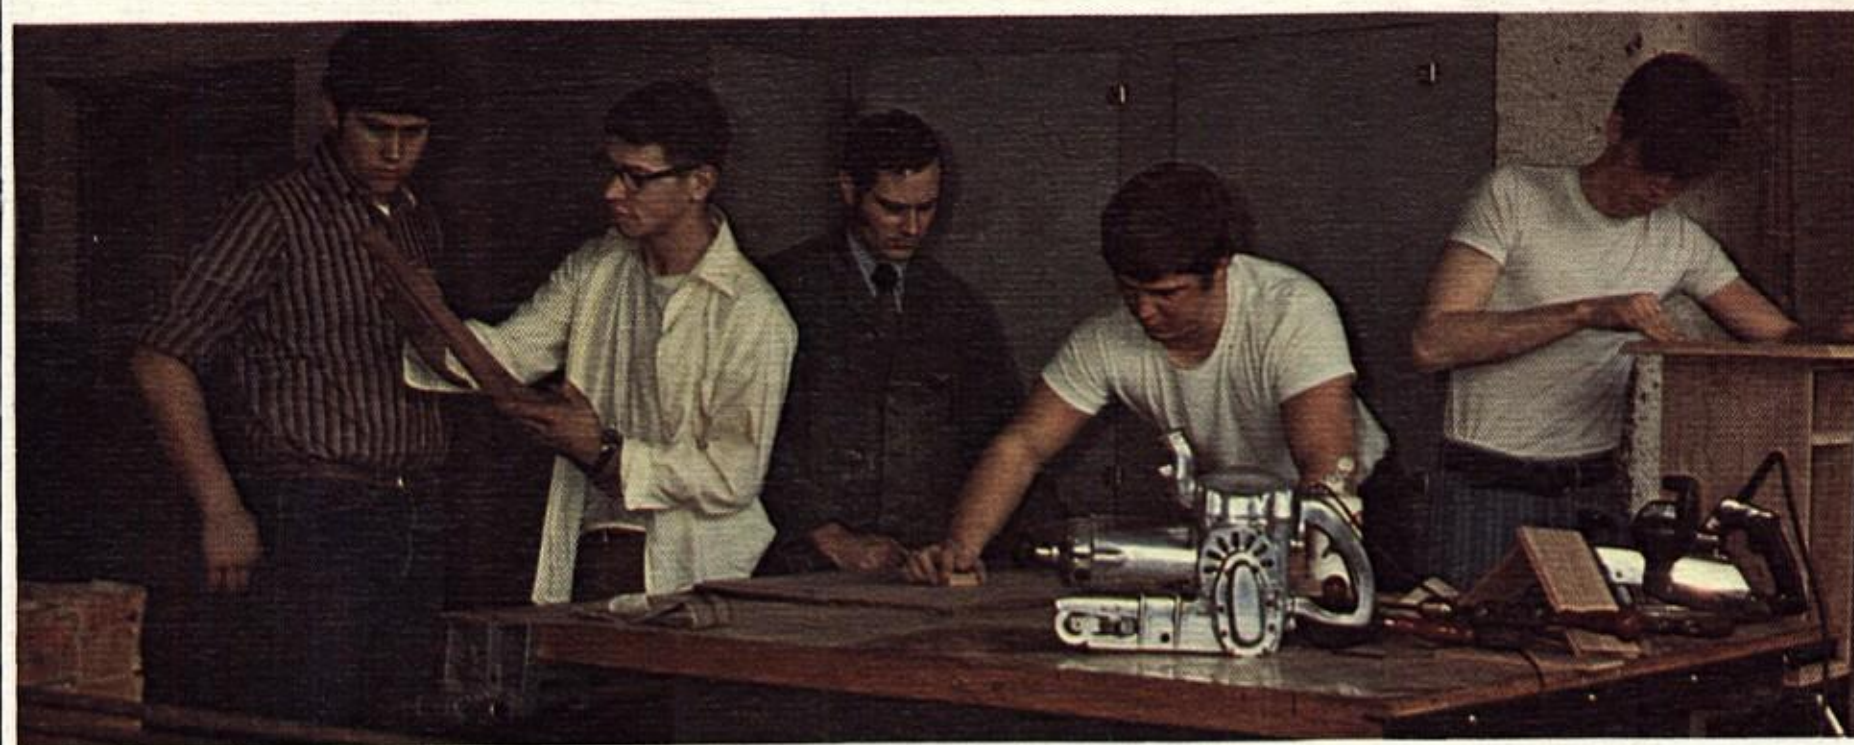

Thinking It Over, All of Us . . .

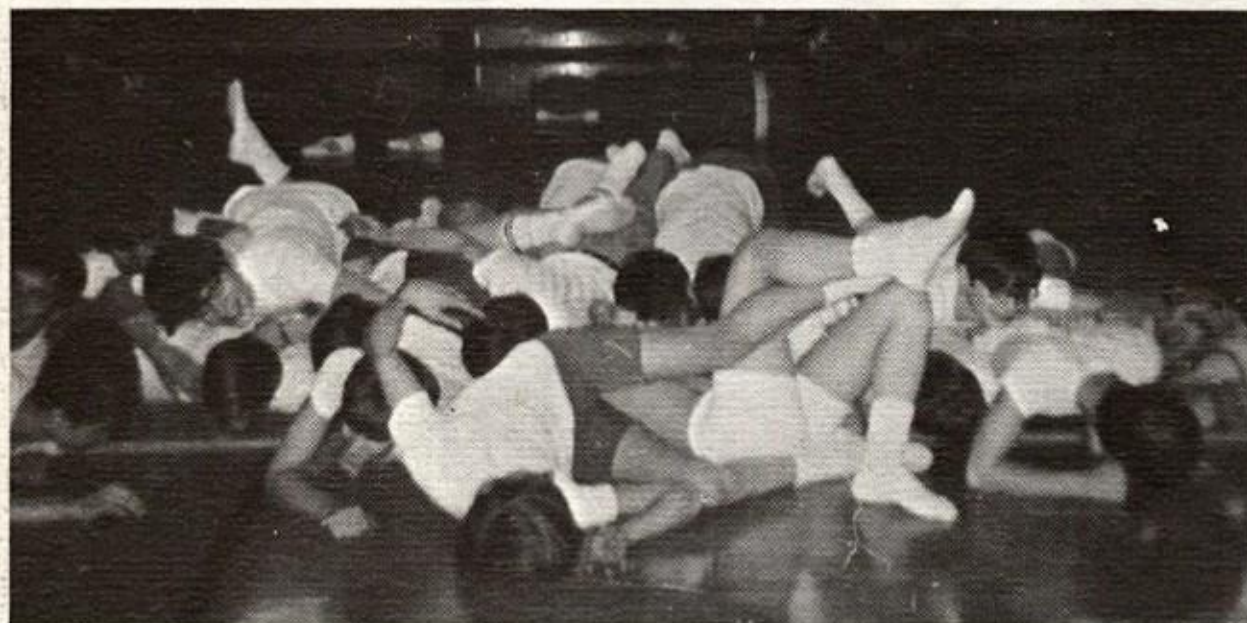

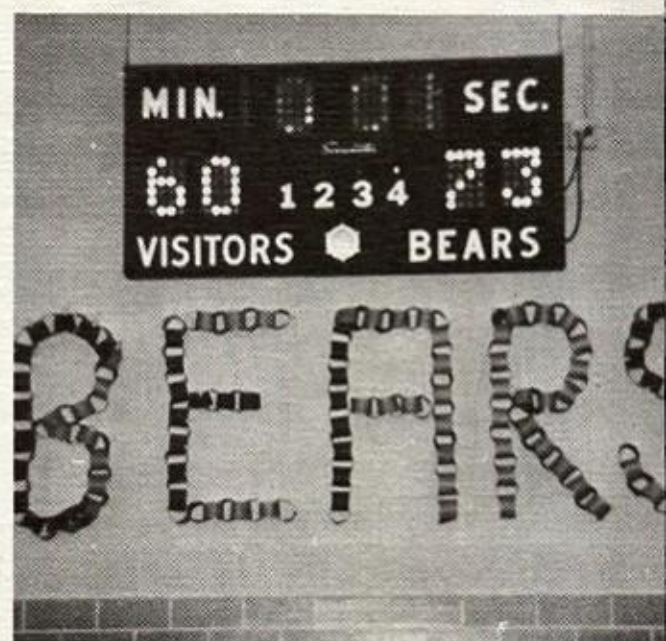

... Working Together Day to Day

We talked about the game Friday night,
Last night's homework
Or the Junior dance.
We followed the fads and tried to be friends
with everyone,
Happiness is what we worked at.

And When 3:15 Comes, We Smile . . .

... So Much Is Left

And as we near the end we wonder
What it was all about-
Where time has gone.
But then we realize
That we have just begun... to live.

Dedication

MRS. LELA VICKERY

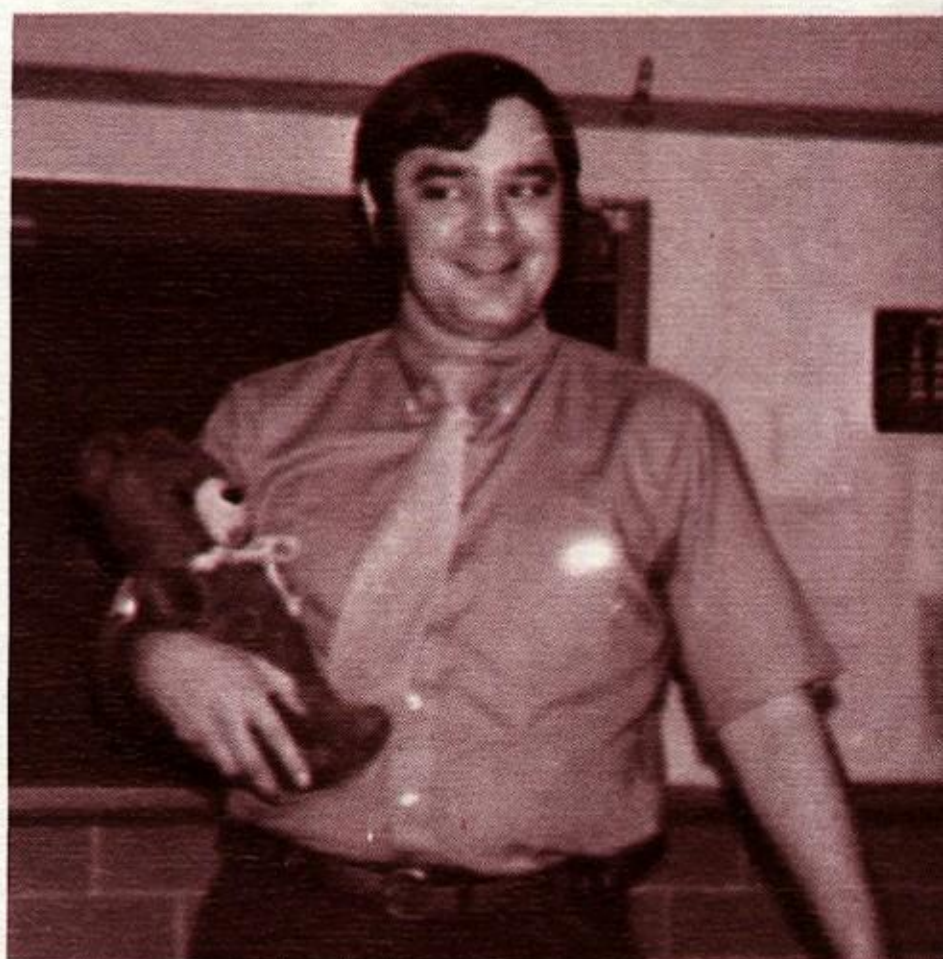

Mrs. Vickery has taught at Gibsonburg for 25 years. She has served in about every educational department, mainly mathematics. The flowers and centerpieces she brought for her desk always added a little 'extra' to her class.

The class of 1971 sincerely
dedicates the Bears' Tale to:

MR. THOMAS BROWN

Mr. Brown has taught at Gibsonburg since 1967. He has served in the history, psychology and sociology departments. He has proven to be a favorite among the class of '71 because of his jovial manner.

For the First Time!

After several weeks of hard practice, the Senior Band traveled to the District Band and Chorus contest at Clyde, Ohio on March 27. Here they made a first for Gibsonburg High School by getting a I rating. It was the first time in the history of the school that the band ever qualified for State Contest.

At 6:45 a. m. on April 25, the happy and excited band returned to Clyde to compete in the State Contest where they received a rating of III or Good.

We are very proud of our band and we hope that this "first" certainly won't be their "last!"

Another first was made for Gibsonburg when on February 20, Linda Magrum came in 3rd in Oratorical Declamation at District B Speech Contest at Port Clinton, Ohio. This qualified Linda for State Contest.

On March 19, Linda and her Speech instructor, Mrs. Lang, went to Ohio State University to participate in the Contest. Although she didn't make the Semi-finals, Linda did place in the top half.

Here some band members are shown at Clyde discussing the Contest which is about to take place.

The band got a chance to practice at Clyde before the Contest began. Mr. Bell leads the practice in one of the rehearsal rooms at Clyde.

Homecoming '70

The royal smile of a queen.

Mary Mauch reigned as the 1970 Homecoming Queen. In her court were Senior attendants Brenda Bruntz and Mary Seem, Junior attendant Pam Cicanese, Sophomore attendant Susie Turco and Freshman attendant LuAnn Price. Freshman through Senior classes competed for the best float again this year. The Junior class float won with Snoopy saying "Put Mohawks in the Dog House." The theme for this year's homecoming was "Everything is Beautiful." This year was different in that the identity of the queen was not revealed until homecoming night.

Mary Seem escorted by Scott Smith.

Mary Mauch escorted by Frank LaSalvia.

Brenda Bruntz escorted by Ron Fork.

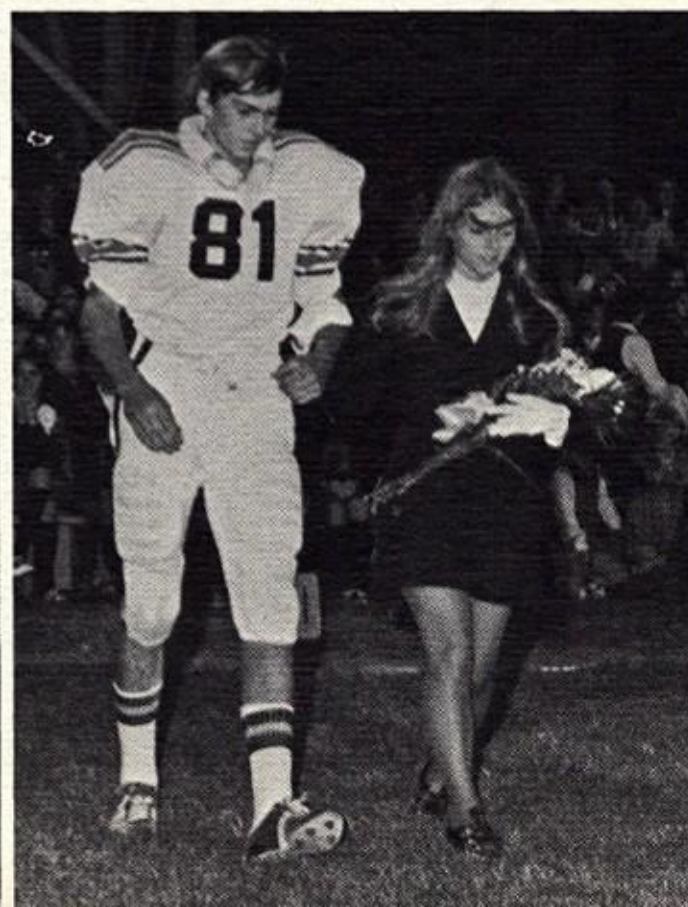

Queen Mary is crowned and kissed by Quarterback Frank LaSalvia.

LuAnn Price escorted by Ron Mauch.

Pam Cicanese escorted by Gary Stevenson.

Susie Turco escorted by Carl Balsizer.

Jr.-Sr. Class Presents the Play "Our Town"

Gibsonburg High School combined both junior and senior classes this year to produce the production "Our Town." This play was rather extraordinary in that the audience depended greatly on their imaginations. Props were not used by the characters and the time sequence in this play went from present to past to present again with a narrator tying the incidents together. Mrs. Lang and Mr. Bowers directed "Our Town" with Amy Simcox and Deb Fought as Student directors. This play is one that the people of Gibsonburg will remember.

The character of George Gibbs was played by Gregg Arnold.

Professor Willard, portrayed by Dennis Conrad, gives information on Grover's Corners.

Dave Holt played the character of Howie, the milkman.

David Damschroder played Simon Stimson, the town drunkard.

All-School Musical

This is the setting for the work house boys-which were played by an all-girl cast with the exception of Oliver who is SEATED LOWER LEFT.

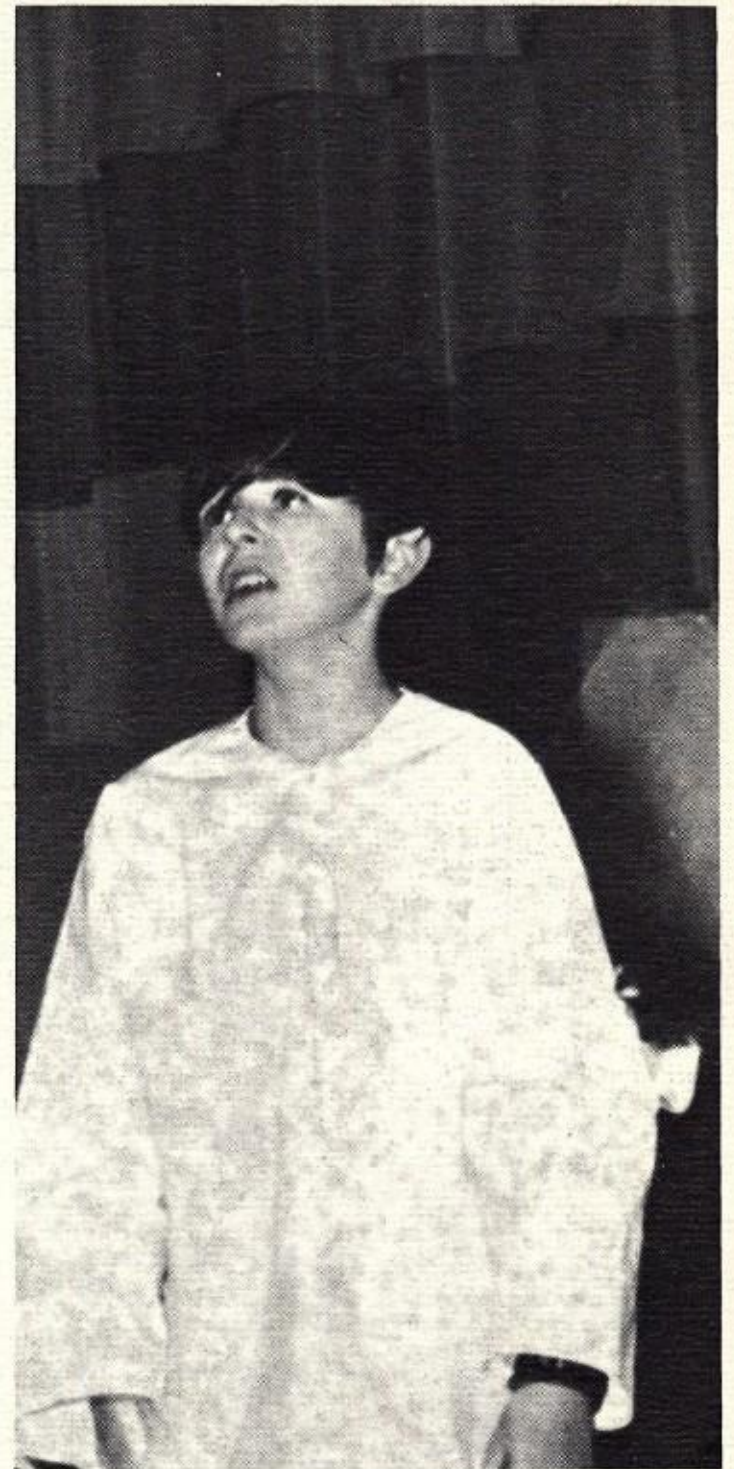

"Oliver!" was the first musical ever put on at Gibsonburg High School. It was an all-school musical, the cast consisting of Freshman through Seniors with the exception of Oliver who was played by Gary Funkhouser, a seventh grader. Shy at first, Gary came through without missing a cue. The new lighting and sound systems really helped to bring out the scenery and voices. "Where Is Love?" and "Consider Yourself" were two of the more popular songs sung in "Oliver!"

Bill Sykes, played by Jeff Swartzlander, singing in the tavern with Nancy, played by Becky Clark.

'Oliver!'

Kevin Diels, as Fagin, coaxes Oliver to become a pickpocket.

Seventh grader Gary Funkhouser portrayed Oliver. Here is Gary singing "Where Is Love?"

Becky Clark, as Nancy, sings "As Long As He Needs Me."

One of the more comical scenes in "Oliver!" is when Mrs. Corning plays innocent towards Mr. Bumble.

“The Enchanted Ball”

Cinderella's coach of gold and black.

The Junior class chose for the 1971 prom the theme "The Enchanted Ball." Cinderella and her prince were chosen by each young lady drawing from the gypsy's crystal ball. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were once again advisors in the making of the prom. Sophomore servers wore peasant costumes. Highlights of the prom were Cinderella's house, the palace and her coach. Opposite Cinderella's house was the wishing well where many couples made a wish.

Many couples were told their fortunes at the prom.

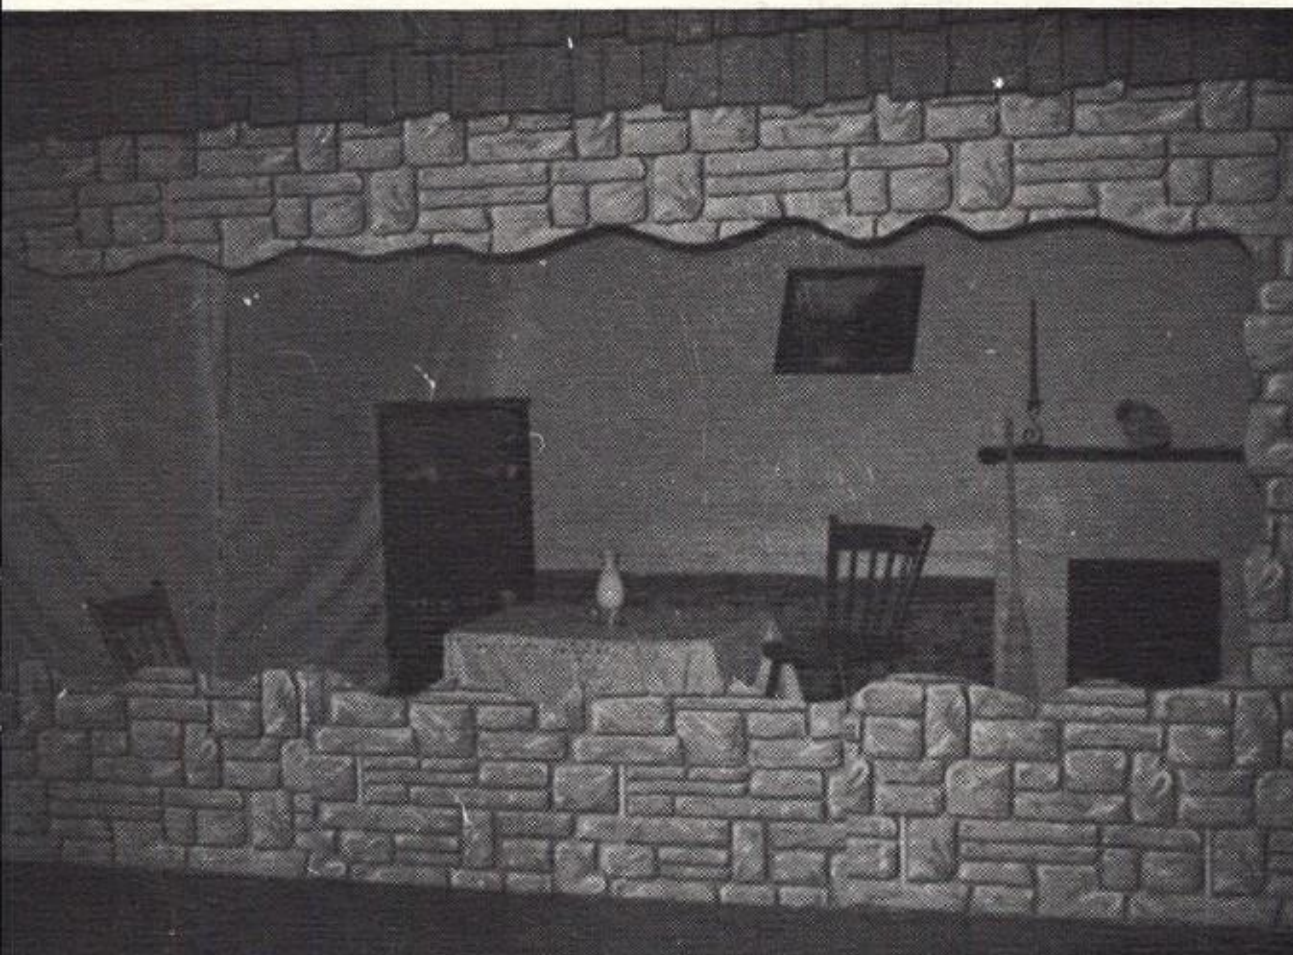

Judy Taulker and George Diab reigned as the royal couple at the 1971 prom.

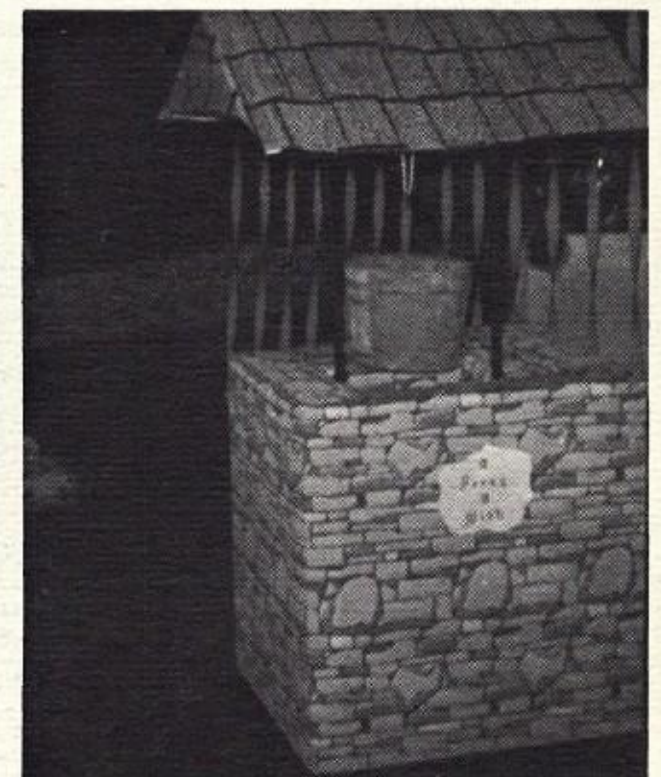

Ross Stage Band provided the music.

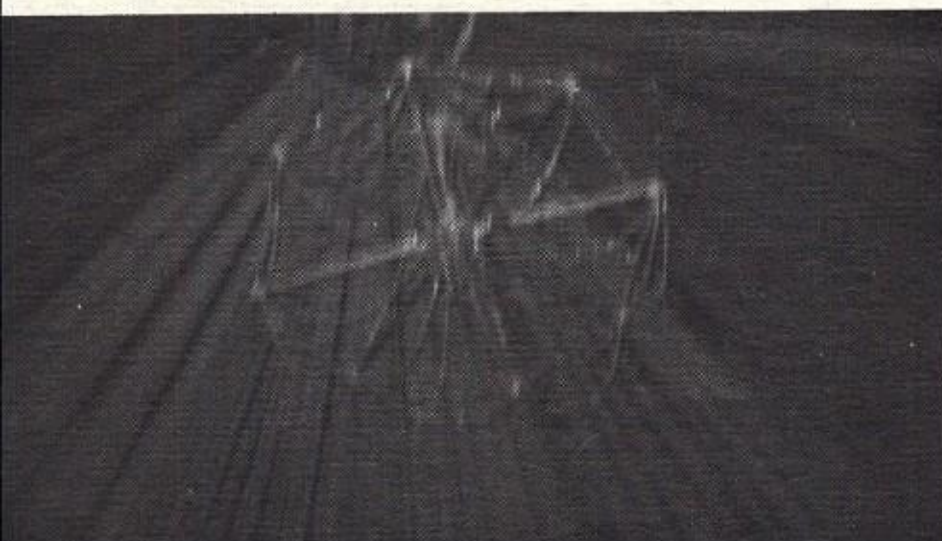

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were honored guests at the prom.

The home of Cinderella.

Many couples made wishes at the prom.

The chandelier which hung in the palace.

Jrs. Choose Cedar Point For Trip

The Class of 72 enjoyed their day at Cedar Point. Although the weather was chilly, it did not stand in the way of their fun. Their day at Cedar Point lasted from 9:00 AM to 7:00 PM.

Another Fun Day At Cedar Point

Seniors also chose Cedar Point for their trip. Like the Juniors, the Seniors were also unlucky with the weather but their spirits were brightened by the thought that this was a free trip for them. This is a trip the Seniors will never forget.

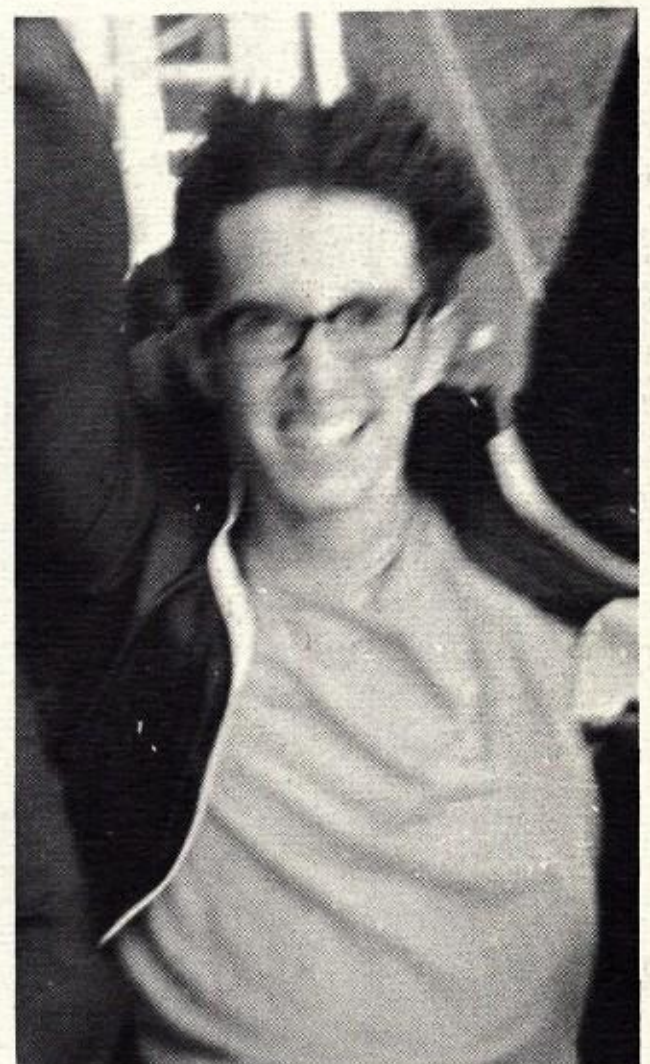

Mary Seem finds her way around Cedar Point.

Danny Miller comes out ahead of Nancy Aldrich, Janine Balsizer, and Glenna Myers.

Dave Holt defies the Blue Steak.

Seniors Take the Final Step

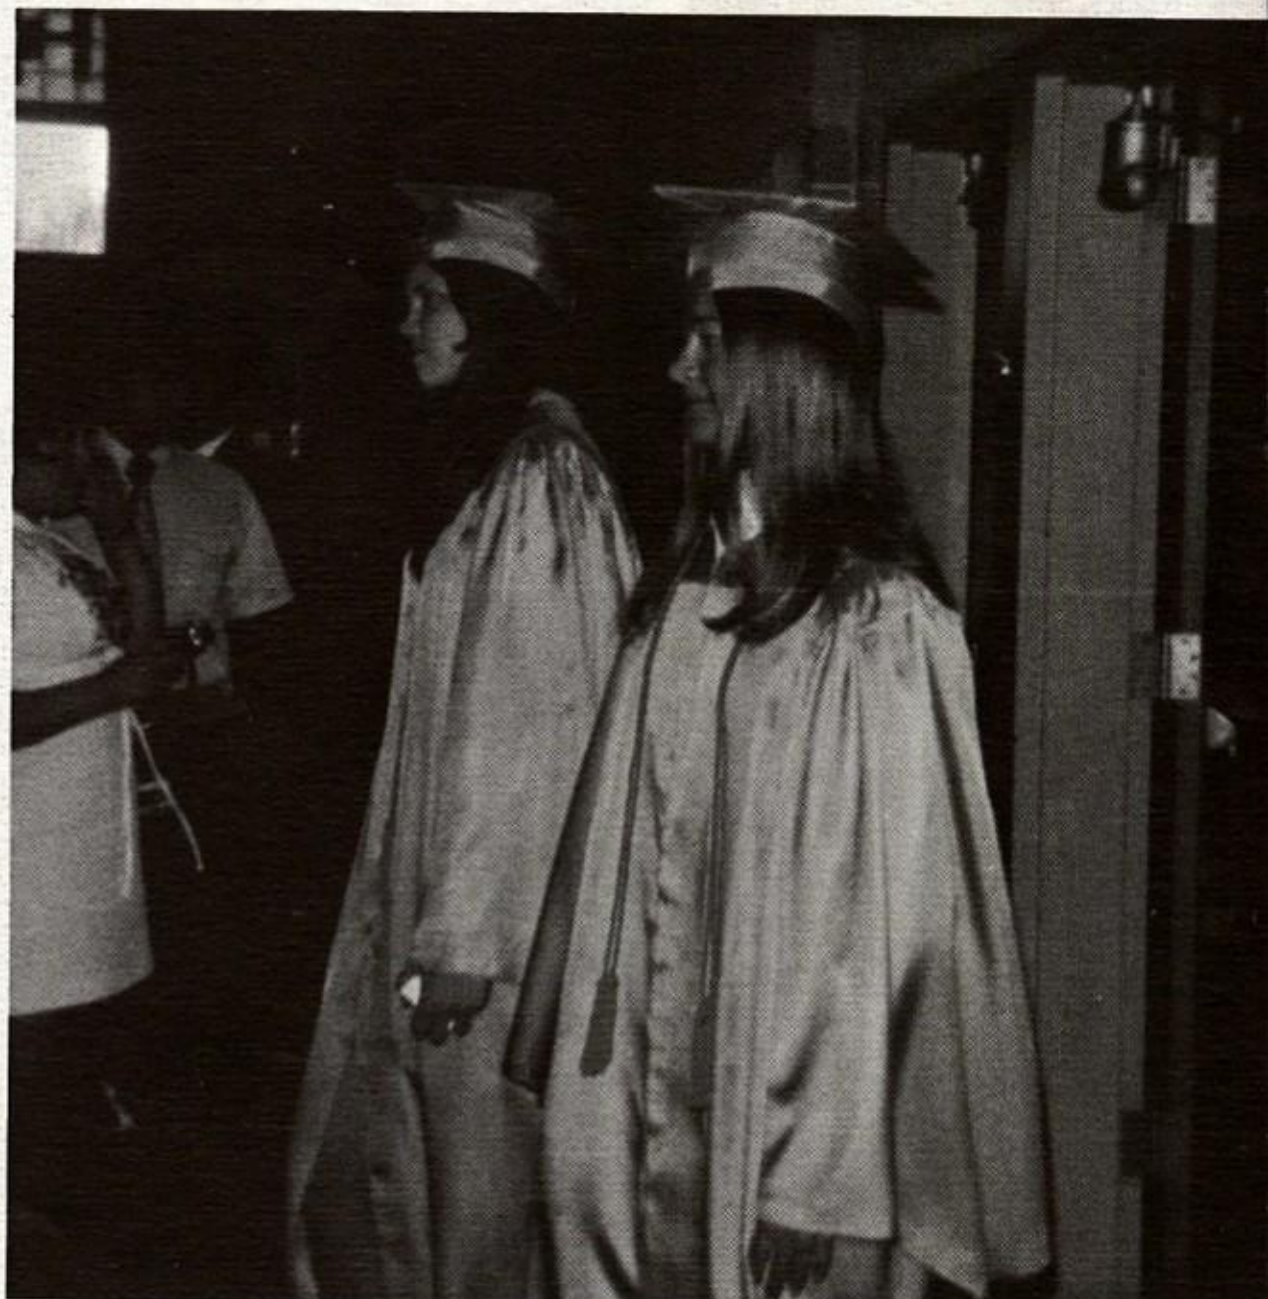

The 1971 graduating class chose for their motto, "Let Each Man Step To The Beat Of His Own Drum." Pat Balsizer and Josie VanDerLaar were co-valedictorians with Mary Mauch as salutatorian. For the first time in the history of Gibsonburg there was a combined baccalaureate-commencement ceremony.

Like Mary, we should all face the future with our head held high and our back straight.

This thought by Thoreau is very appropriate for the class of '71.

Because they never let down these two have the honor of leading their class into the future.

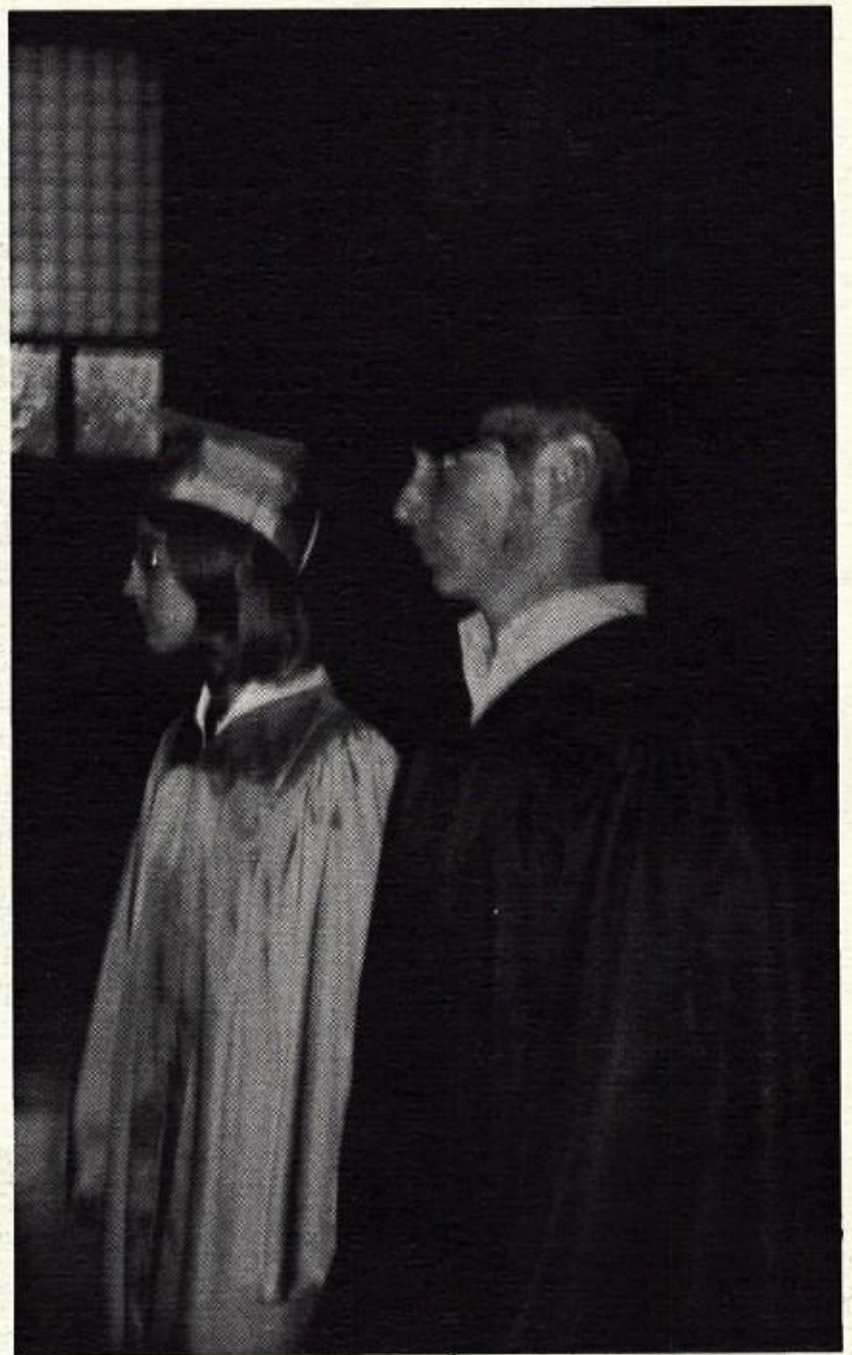

Even rehearsals become a part of the graduation memories.

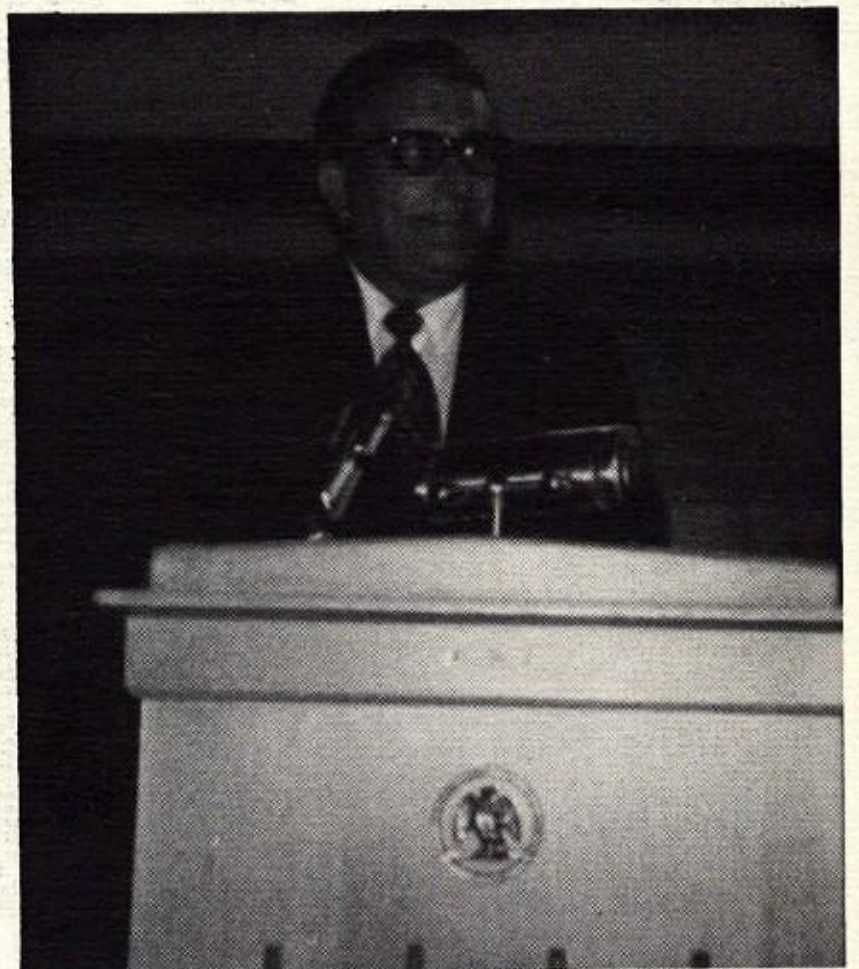

Last minute preparations are made by the anxious graduates.

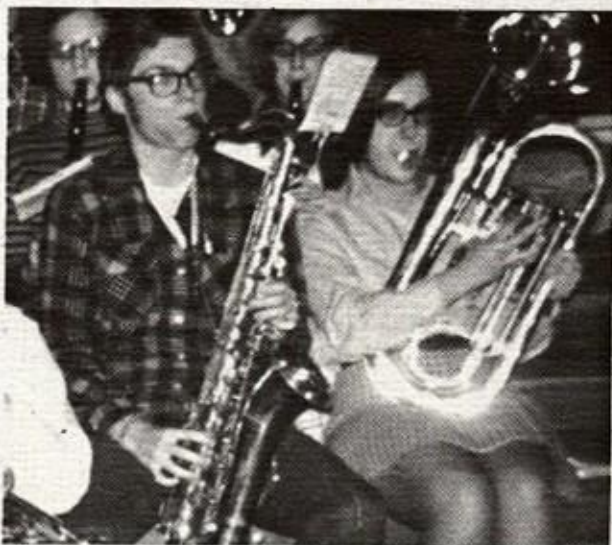

Last minute instructions tax the graduates' patience.

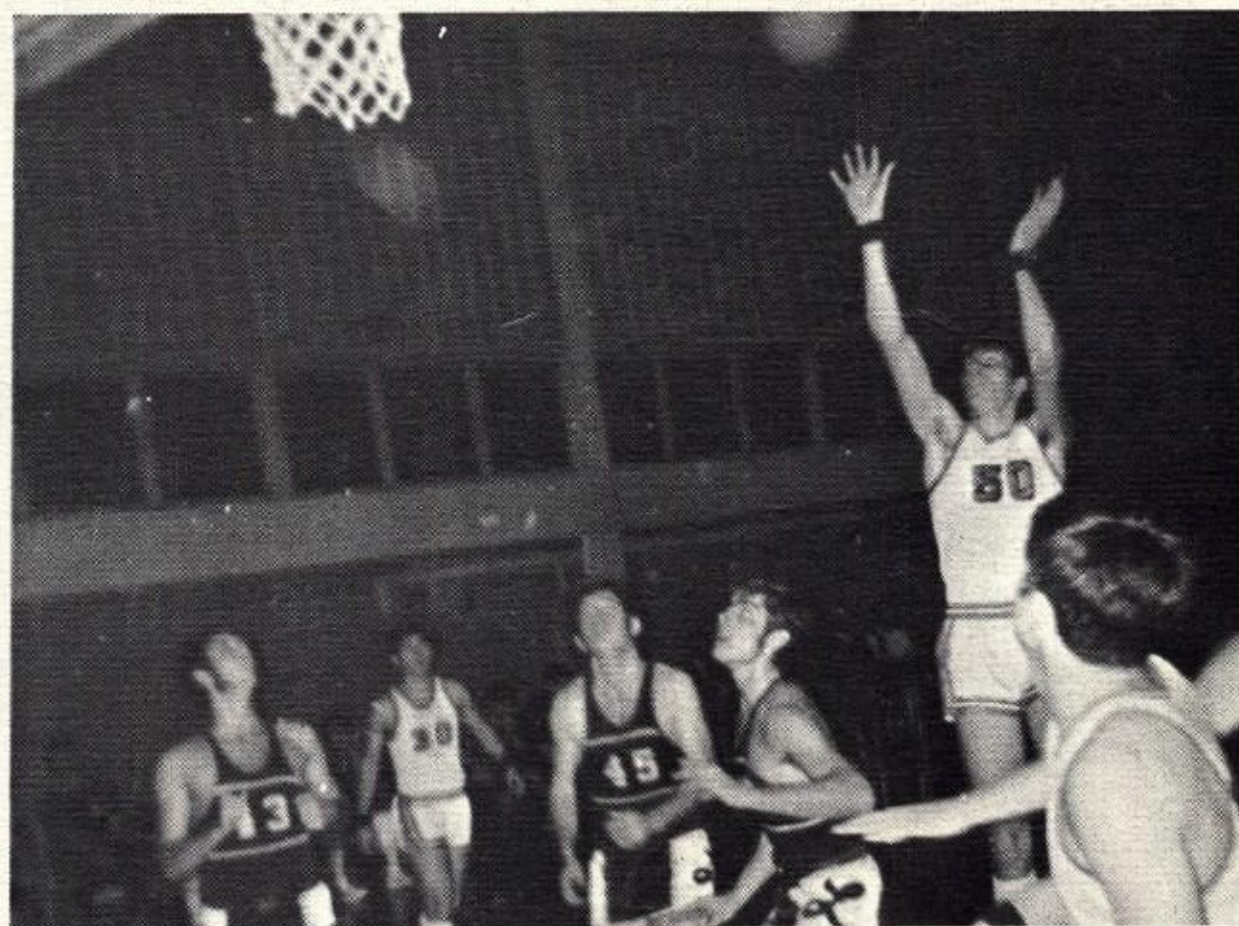

Solitude and intimate thoughts face the graduates as they enter the auditorium.

Mr. Fisher bids farewell to a class he can be proud of.

Freshman lockers are noted to be sloppy.

Freshman

As their first year in high school, the freshman students had a busy year. Not only having more subjects and responsibilities; they were able to be more active in outside activities.

The class of "74" was honored to have LuAnn Price represent them at the 1970-71 homecoming and Cindy Hill at the FFA Banquet.

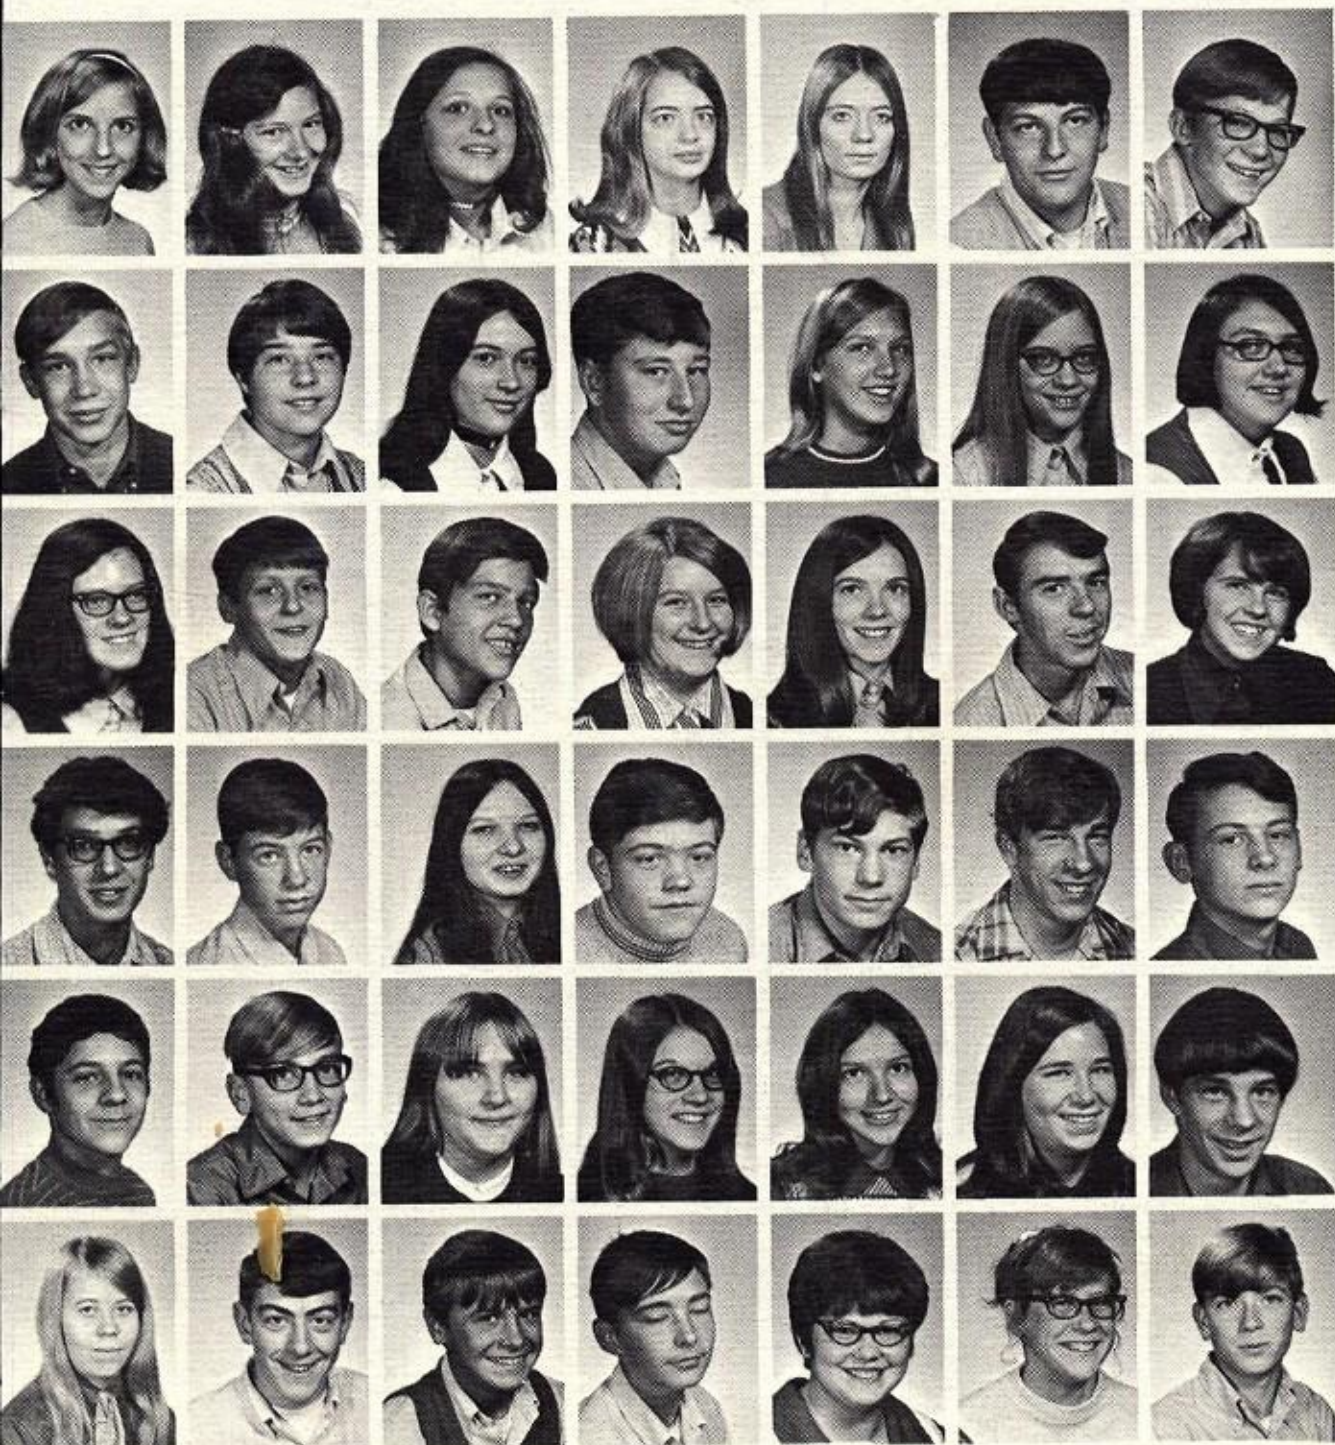

The year was a successful one for the freshman and all of them are looking forward to the next three years of high school.

Sophomores

Halfway through their high school days, the 1970-71 sophomore class broke a Gibsonburg tradition. During their sophomore year the students ordered their class rings. Instead of ordering the square ones they changed the scenery and got round rings.

Homecoming attendant for the sophomores was Susie Turco and Barb Donnell was the attendant for the FFA Banquet.

With two more years the sophomore class eagerly awaits their freshman year.

Juniors

It was a good year for the juniors. Instead of having a Junior C Play, the juniors and seniors gave a successful play together. The class of '72' won $50 for the best homecoming float and was proud to have Pam Cicanese as the junior attendant. Marleen Wasserman represented them at the FFA Banquet.

Preparing for the prom, going on their first class trip, writing to schools and colleges, taking aptitude test, and getting ready for their future were just some of the goals for the juniors. The last day of being underclassmen will never be forgotten and the days ahead will be cherished by the Class of '72.
